Type:	PAYE Fixed Term
Responsible to:	Box Office Manager & Deputy Box Office Manager
Salary:	£12.89 per hour + Holiday Pay (12.07%)

Job Purpose

To work as part of an effective sales team, providing efficient ticket sales and information services for Brighton Fringe 2026, providing and maintaining a high degree of customer satisfaction.

Key Responsibilities

- To provide an efficient box office sales service operating a computerised ticket system (Eventotron SSBO) over the phone and face to face
- To answer all enquiries received at the Box Office relating to events taking part in the Brighton Fringe and to assist in managing and troubleshooting a variety of queries from customers, artists and venue managers
- To create and nurture relationships with Brighton Fringe audiences, encouraging casual and new attendees to visit on a more regular basis.
- Promoting additional products/add-ons for customers, along with communicating Brighton Fringe's charity status and donation options to maximize income potential.
- To maintain positive relationships with artists and venue managers and assist in updating event details where required.
- To help provide statistics relating to sales, specific offers and promotions when required.
- Actively sharing knowledge of events, recommending events and promoting the festival in general.
- To make a positive contribution to the work of the Box Office team and Company as a whole.

- To implement all Brighton Fringe policies and procedures such as the Health and Safety and Equalities policy and ensure this underpins all other practices, policies and procedures.
- To undertake any other duties in line with the responsibilities of the post as requested by the Box Office Managers, Managing Director or board of trustees.
